We would be delighted to welcome students and graduates from your University for this year's events.

The Young Diplomats Forum is the world's leading meeting for young leaders with an intensive week- long programme of practical sessions, workshops, policy exercises, and institutional visits. The accumulation of knowledge, skills and network of contacts have helped past delegates in boasting their career significantly.

The proceedings and workshops of the forum engage young diplomats with Ambassadors, MPs, MEPs, Government officials, Media and Diplomacy experts on different issues of global affairs. In addition, the Young Diplomats Forum is a cultural and entertaining experience that create international friendship amongst participants and engage with institutions that hosts sessions of the programme such as the House of Lords, Embassies British Council, Facebook Europe, EU Representation and Royal United Service Institute.

The programme includes the following sessions:

- Diplomacy in the 21st Century with ambassadors and leading experts at the Global Diplomats Forum
- Digital Diplomacy in collaboration with the Facebook Europe
- Priorities of UK Foreign Policy and parliamentarian diplomacy with members of parliament

- The role of think tanks in Foreign Policy in partnership with Royal United Services Institute
- The challenges to the UK-EU foreign policy at the EU representation office in London
- Public and Cultural Diplomacy in partnership with the British Council
- Nation Brand With Simon Anholt
- Smart Diplomacy Workshop by the Chief Executive and a member of the board of the Global Diplomatic Forum
- Policy development workshop
- Negotiations workshop
- Smart Diplomacy workshop
- Closing Ceremony at the Churchill Room, House of Commons
